Every successful team has a strong leader – someone whose commitment, energy and exemplary service leads to great results and inspiring others. The Maryland Tourism Coalition's (MTC) professional awards honor your colleagues, employees and associates whose skill, dedication, and talent bring professionalism to Maryland tourism. Nominators and Recipients must be members of the Maryland Tourism Coalition in good standing. NOTE: Nominations can be entered in only ONE category.

Tourism Person of the Year

This prestigious award is given to an industry leader whose exceptional commitment has significantly enhanced and perpetuated the tourism industry in Maryland. Criteria: A nominee must work in a tourism-related company in Maryland that is a member of the MTC. A nominee must be a resident of Maryland with a minimum of five years involvement in the tourism industry in Maryland. Nominee must be in a leadership position and have demonstrated significant success in fostering tourism and furthering the tourism industry in Maryland. Nominees may be from the private or public sector.

Audrey Davenport Hospitality Person of the Year

Named in honor of a MTC past president who is legendary for exceptional customer service, this honor is awarded to an individual demonstrating outstanding service to Maryland visitors. Criteria: Nominee must work in a tourism-related company in Maryland that is a member of MTC. The nominee must have worked in the tourism industry for a minimum of three years, and must display consistently outstanding service and a positive image about Maryland and his/her company. Examples of outstanding service should be included with the nomination.

New Professional of the Year

The New Professional of the Year Award is given to a newcomer to Maryland tourism whose spirit and commitment exemplify the ideal of our profession. Criteria: A nominee must work in a tourism-related company that is a member of MTC. The nominee must have worked in a new position or capacity in the tourism industry for no more than three years and must be an active participant in industry-related activities.

Visionary Impact Award

Leading a new initiative, working diligently to accomplish a shared goal, the Visionary Impact Award recognizes an individual, business, organization, group or coalition that has made a major impact with an important industry project or product. Criteria: Nominee(s) must have generated significant impact on Maryland tourism within the past year.

Tourism Advocate Award

The Tourism Advocate Award is given to the individual or organization that has successfully led legislative initiatives or has made a commitment to education in state, local or county government. Someone who has heightened the awareness of the tourism industry and its impact on the economy. Criteria: Nominees may be elected officials, private-sector employees, volunteers, government employees or organizations. Nominee's leadership should be demonstrated on behalf of a significant legislative issue or public awareness campaign within the past year.

Cooperative Partnership Award

Teamwork and partnerships are recognized by this award which is presented to multiple destinations, businesses or organizations that come together to form a marketing alliance. The successful program can be an advertising program, a tour, a publication or any activity with pooled resources promoting a common product or experience. Criteria: All entities in the partnership must be MTC members.

Small Business of The Year Award

Many private sector small businesses give MTC a great deal of their time and talents serving and empowering MTC to grow, flourish, and succeed in promoting Tourism throughout the entire Mid-Atlantic region and beyond. Their MTC work in the past year brings them right along-side the MTC Board Members and Staff with praise and thanks. Criteria: Small businesses must be registered in the State of Maryland and be a member of MTC.

MTC Volunteer of The Year Award

This award is given to an individual who has dedicated their personal and business time, skills, and energy to promote and assist with MTC's mission and vision. Their MTC "volunteer" work in the past year has been greatly appreciated and will bring them much praise, affirmation and many thanks from the MTC Board, Staff, and MTC members. Criteria: Nominee must work in a tourism-related company that is a member of MTC.

Rising Star Award

The Rising Star Award honors a tourism professional under the age of 30 who is making an early yet significant impact on Maryland's tourism industry. Nominees should demonstrate exceptional promise, leadership, and commitment to the field, with no more than two years of industry experience. Eligible candidates must be actively employed in Maryland's tourism sector — including hospitality, attractions, events, destination marketing, or transportation — and be an active MTC member or employed by an organization in good standing. This award recognizes those poised to become the industry's future leaders.

Note: Awards will be based solely on the information included with the nomination. Please assume that the judges know very little about your project/destination. The background information should be as complete and concise as possible. To further enhance your nomination, you may submit ONE attachment that includes photos, digital materials, brochures, etc. Multiple items of support should be combined and presented as ONE attachment. Due to new Google regulations, your attachment should be emailed to eteisch@baltimore.org. The judges reserve the right to change categories if appropriate. Judges who have a nomination in any category recuse themselves from voting in that category. MTC will cover the cost up to 3 award plaques. Each additional award is $100 each at the expense of the winner.

2025 Marketing Awards
